Well, Bert, it's been a pretty long time together. Anyway, it seems so. Remember things? The four of us – trips to New York – World's Fair – walks in the park at night – football games and mostly just you and me walking around in a daze. Two or three years is all that it is since we met. Damn, it seems like I've known you and you've known me forever.

Well, we're getting out of school now. What will happen to us is sealed in the book of the future. You feel the same way I do, I guess, that there's no reason we shouldn't stay as we are now. There's nothing that can come between us, remember it. We have a long trail winding ahead of us. Let's ride it together.

Larry

Gee Bert its pretty hard for me to express the way I feel, but sincerely I'm going to miss you (even though you have lousy taste when it comes to girls). After these next five months we may never even see each other again, so I guess this is just as good a time as any to tell you what a swell pal you've been and that I've enjoyed every minute of our friendship.

Bud

It's a little late to sign, and Buddy and Larry have said what I'd have said, but you know my thoughts anyway. We have decided to go to different colleges, but we will be together in spirit until we join each other during vacations. Best of luck again,

Frank
